

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Those protections have almost eliminated the one to two nusiance calls to our home each day. I believe Indiana's law is working and should not be changed by FCC action.